Throughout the 2016-2017 sports season, many RFA teams that Coach Mastracco coached and impacted decided to honor his memory. Our field hockey team put a sticker saying"In Memory of Coach Mastracco" on the top of their sticks. The football team put Coach Mastracco initials, "PM", on the front left of their helmets, as well as putting a quote that Coach himself said while he coach the team. The first football game of the 2016 season was a 'Black Out' in memory of Coach Mastracco. The RFA Girls Tennis Team remembered Coach by putting his initials on there team shirts as well as their team visors. The hockey team remembered Coach Mastracco by putting his name and number "15" on the ice, putting a patch on their jerseys, and by hosting their annual "Face Off Against Colon Cancer" game. All proceeds from selling shirts and raising money went to Colon Cancer Research.

DEDICATION

As life is experienced, may people cross our paths. Some are non-factors, some are influential, some make an impact, and then there is Mr. Mastracco.

Peter Mastracco is the definition of "beyond impact" influence. Anyone who has had any interaction with him remembers him. Mr. Mastracco has, and continues, to make a difference. His Humor, his wit, his well-timed sarcasm, his bottom line unique vocabulary, his smile, his dance moves, his singing (lyrics often being changed to fit the current situation!!) and his dedication to love and life all make Mr. Mastracco an individual who went and goes beyond making a difference. The man makes an impact.

Mr. Mastracco has given lessons to us all, and most times when he wasn't even aware of it. Mr. Mastracco's love of life, sports, and teaching is an enduring inspiration to colleagues, friends, and students. To interact with Peter is to know him. Every student, colleague, athlete, and even random person left a meeting with Mr. Mastracco with the same sentiment. "Wow, that guy is great!!"

I am truly honored to be writing this message for the yearbook. I was initially asked to write a dedication memorial for Mr. Mastracco as the yearbook is very appropriately being dedicated to him. I quickly realized that a "memorial" was not accurate. This passage has been light, and often written in present tense intentionally. It is because the influence and positive impact that Mr. Mastracco gives has not left us. His presence, his light, his personality all live on in anyone who encountered him. Casual acquaintances have a story of their meeting. Friends still have him near. He remains in the hearts and actions of family.

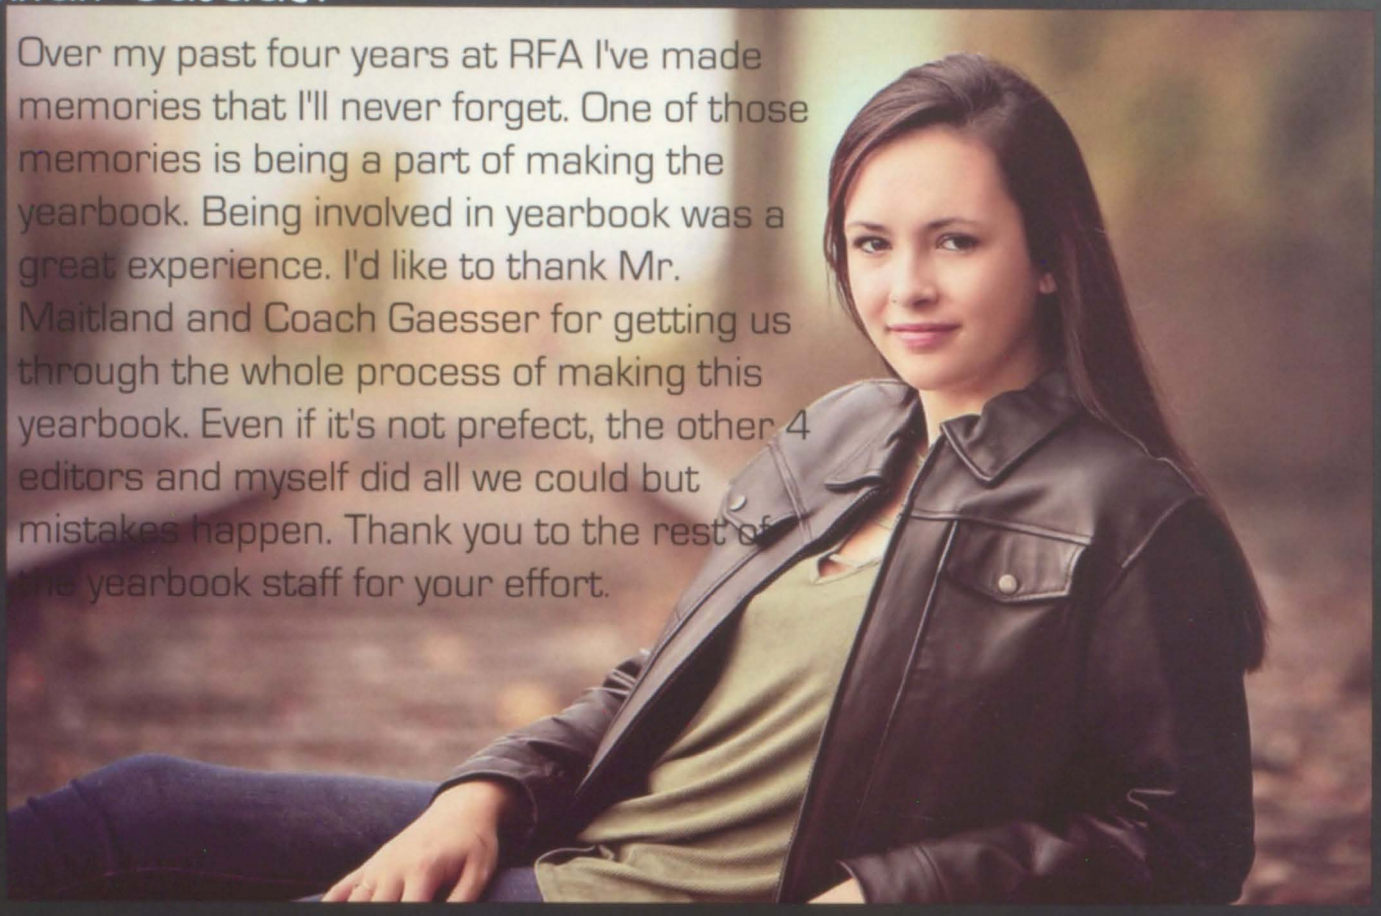
This is not a memorial. This is a thank you to a remarkable man, son, father, coach, husband, educator, friend. So many hats he wore and impacted the lives of others with

The smiles and energy that Mr. Peter Mastracco has given and continues to give are cherished and an inspiration to us all.

Thank you, my friend.

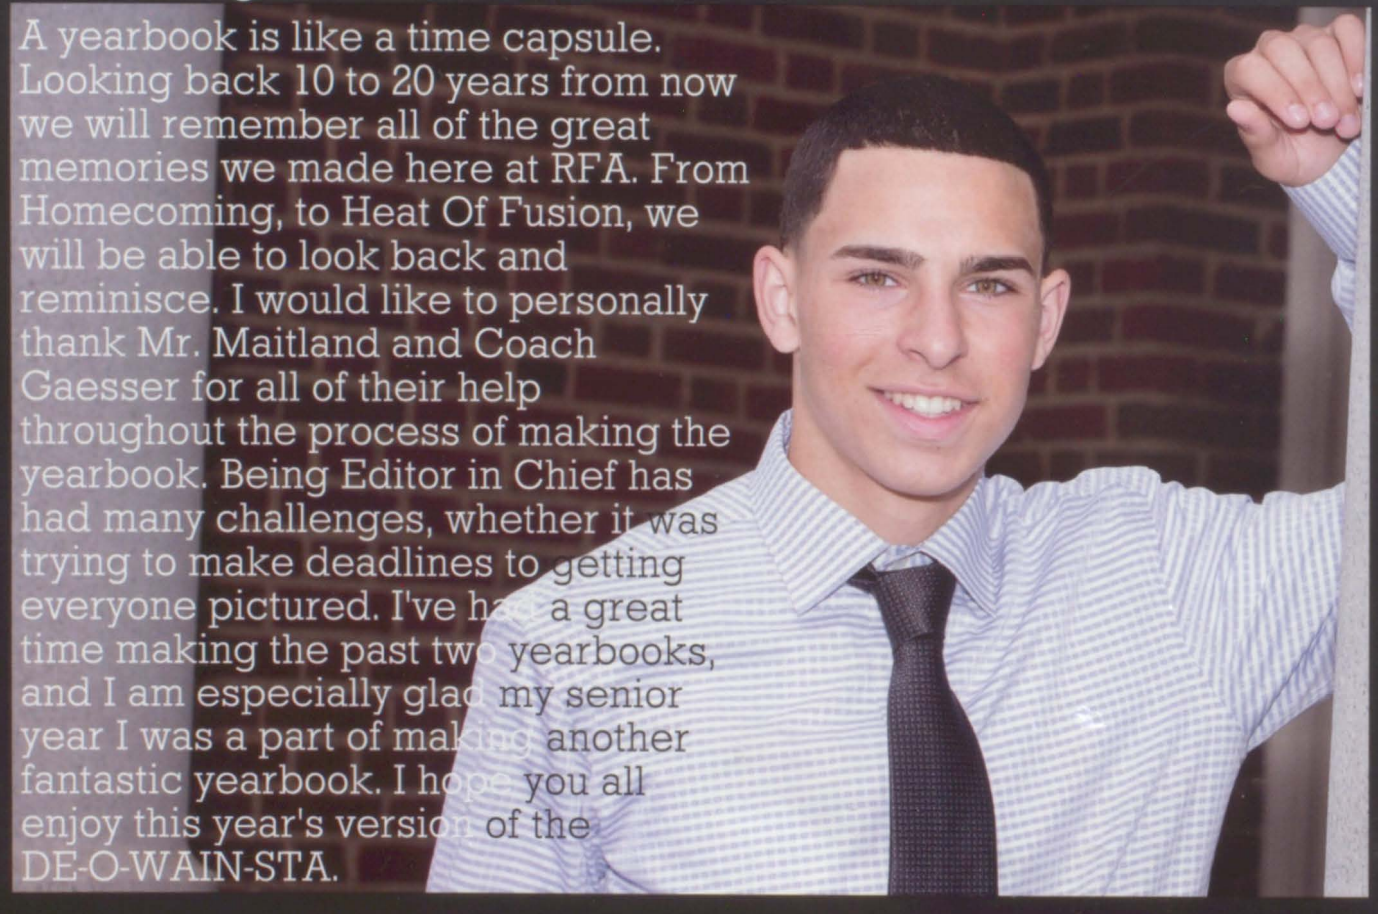
Notes from the editors:

Hannah Casadei



Over my past four years at RFA I've made memories that I'll never forget. One of those memories is being a part of making the yearbook. Being involved in yearbook was a great experience. I'd like to thank Mr. Maitland and Coach Gaesser for getting us through the whole process of making this yearbook. Even if it's not prefect, the other 4 editors and myself did all we could but mistakes happen. Thank you to the rest of the yearbook staff for your effort.

Nathan Korrigan



A yearbook is like a time capsule. Looking back 10 to 20 years from now we will remember all of the great memories we made here at RFA. From Homecoming, to Heat Of Fusion, we will be able to look back and reminisce. I would like to personally thank Mr. Maitland and Coach Gaesser for all of their help throughout the process of making the yearbook. Being Editor in Chief has had many challenges, whether it was trying to make deadlines to getting everyone pictured. I've ha[illegible] a great time making the past tw[illegible] yearbooks, and I am especially glad my senior year I was a part of mak[illegible] another fantastic yearbook. I ho[illegible] you all enjoy this year's versio[illegible] of the DE-O-WAIN-STA.

Rebekah Lubey

It has been an incredible opportunity to be an editor and working on the DE-O-WAIN-STA yearbook two years in a row. During my years of attending RFA, I have made friendships and memories that I will always cherish. Thank you so much for sending in your pictures and sharing some of your favorite moments that help make the yearbook the best it can be. Being able to have something as great as the RFA yearbook would never be possible without the exciting lives of the students here. Congratulations seniors, and thank you for the best four years of high school possible.

Moriah Humiston (Jr. Editor)

I had the incredible opportunity to learn and take pride in the 2016-2017 yearbook during my first year being on the staff. I was able to learn from four other amazing editors and a great staff about how to create a book that helped capture just some of this year's greatest moments. The senior class of 2017 have been phenomenal friends and role models to look up to over the past few years, and I wish you all the best of luck with the future. As for the class of 2018, I cannot wait to continue making more memories and being able to capture what the future holds for next year's yearbook.

Nick Korrigan (Sports editor)

We have bled black and orange for the past four years seniors. We've put hard work into our practices and games. We wanted to get that championship game and win it for our school and town. All of us seniors are going to do something amazing with our lives, whether it's in sports, music, furthering your education, or going into the military. For you upcoming seniors, DON'T take any practices for granted, you will miss it. Cherish every moment of your years or years to come. You may want to leave, but you will miss this place once you're gone. ...Once a Black Knight, Always a Black Knight!

Dear Students,

I cannot begin to describe in words what an amazing year this has been. You have adjusted to change better than anyone could have imagined which is a true testament to your character, leadership, and maturity as young adults.

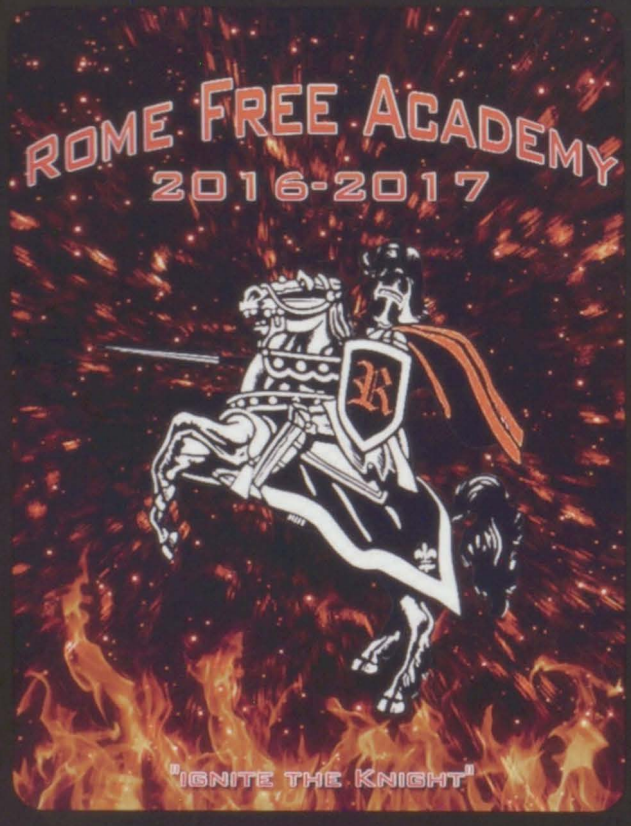
Thank you seniors for buying into to the future of RFA and paving the way to a bright future leading by example. Thank you underclassman for your willingness to work with us, taking on the challenges that come with greater responsibilities. This school year ends with all of our students leaving behind a platform for greatness and a vision to become legendary at RFA.

I am very proud of all of you!! Be great at everything you do!

All my best,

Mr. LeBaron

Ignite the Knight



The cover of the 2016-2017 yearbook "IGNITE THE KNIGHT" was designed by senior Brandon Parry. The theme was orignially created because at Rome Free Academy, we are all ignited by something that inspires us. Whether it is sports, music, art, or clubs, we have all found a way to "Take CHARGE" in the things we love to do in our school. Rome Free Academy would not be nearly as successful in our achievements if it was not for the ambition and the integrity of the students and staff that help us create a great yearbook featuring their accomplishments.

Moriah Humiston ~ Editor

De-O-Wain-Sta

The Rome Free Academy yearbook has been named "De-O-Wain-Sta" for its 93 volumes. The name "De-O-Wain-Sta" originated from where the early Native American Indians carried their canoes from one stream to the other. The "Carrying Place" between the Mohawk and Wood Creek is a point the two streams approach within a mile and a half of each other. It was an important link in the main 18th century trade route between the Atlantic seaboard of North America and interior of the continent.

Valedictorian

It has been a long journey, but we made it, Class of 2017! I plan to major in Mechanical Engineering at Olin College of Engineering. I have been involved in Varsity Cross Country, Mathletics, Rhapsody, and the Gay-Straight Alliance. I would like to thank Mr. Natishak, Mr. Connery and Mrs. Richardson for helping me find my path for the future, Mr. Meiss for helping me discover my inner talents, and Miss Spindler for all the encouragement and support. Lastly, I would like to thank my family and friends, who are always there for me.

Julia Rizzo

Salutatorian

Well Class of 2017, we did it. I am extremely honored to be the salutatorian of a very talented class of students. In the fall, I will be attending Clarkson University to pursue a dual degree in Biology and Environmental Science and Policy. While in RFA, I ran distance for three seasons on Varsity Cross Country, Indoor Track, and Outdoor Track and Field. I was also Treasurer of the RFA chapter of the National Honor Society and Captain of the Mock Trial Team. I would like to thank my family, friends, teachers, and coaches for all the support they have given me throughout my years at RFA. I am thankful for my four great years at RFA and am excited for the future. Good luck to everyone in the Class of 2017 in their future endeavors!

Hillside Work-Scholarship Connection

Hillside Work-Scholarship Connection (HW-SC) helps middle and high school students stay in school and earn their high school diploma, while providing invaluable part-time work experience and job skills to help prepare them for life after graduation. Full time, professional youth adovactes provied long-term mentoring and connect students to a 360 degree web of individualised support. HW-SC empowers students with the skills and confidence they need to relize dreams of success at school, at home, and on the job.

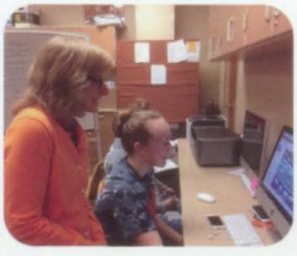
"You're killing me"
~ Romeo

"Listen here buster"
~Campbell



"Don't make me pull this car over" ~ Gaesser

Senior Melshia Brownlee, otherwise known as "Mel", moved here from the Bronx with his 9 brothers and sisters. He's attended 3 high schools so far and stated, "RFA is by far my favorite highschool" . He went on to say that RFA has a great environment and that the teachers are wonderful. At his other high schools he claimed the teachers just didn't care, you could leave school and no one would say anything. Whereas at RFA, if you leave school, you should expect consequences the next day. Mel says that this motivates him to push himself to graduate. Mel plays football and basketball and says that everyone in Rome is very friendly. One wish Mel has for everyone here in Rome and RFA is that they appreciate what they have. Mel says that he wishes people could go where he has gone and experienced what he has, he says everyone should be grateful for what they have here at RFA. Melshia says that without RFA he doesn't feel like he would have graduated.

We would like to thank all of the local busineses and parents whom purchased ads this year. Your support has enabled us to have this amazing yearbook. The contributions have helped lower the price of the yearbook for all RFA students. Please continue to support our local businesses, as they have supported us! Thank you to the yearbook staff for their dedication in showcasing our local businesses!

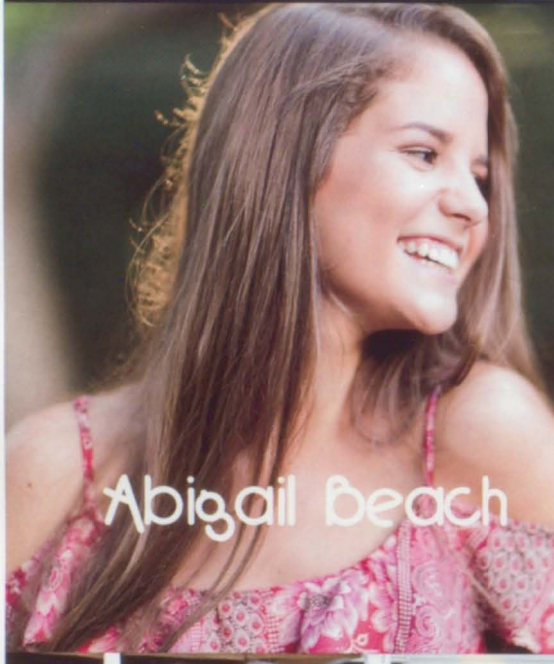
Jadon Barton

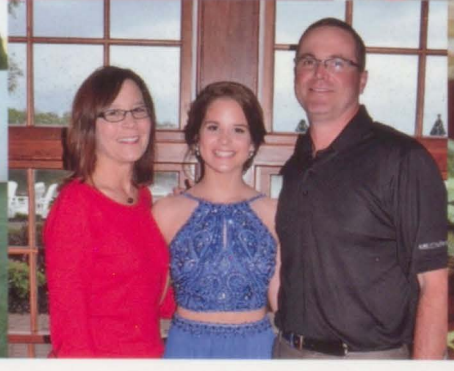
Jadon, Since the day you were born, you were filled with enthusiasm for life. Your outgoing personality, silliness and determination will get you far. Stay true to yourself and always know you can do whatever you set your mind too. Remember to stay DRIVEN and keep your eye on your GOALS!

Love always, Dad, Mom, Kenna, and Kady



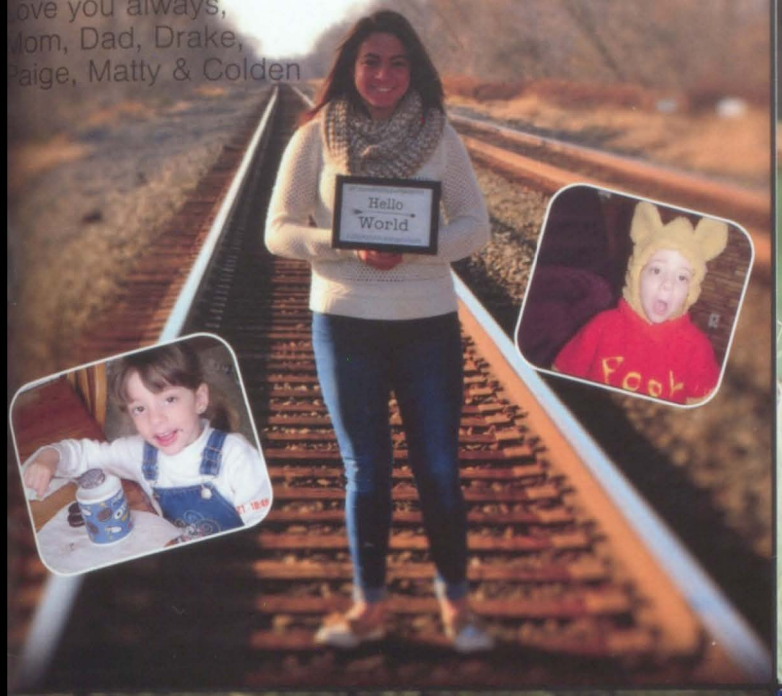
Abigail Beach

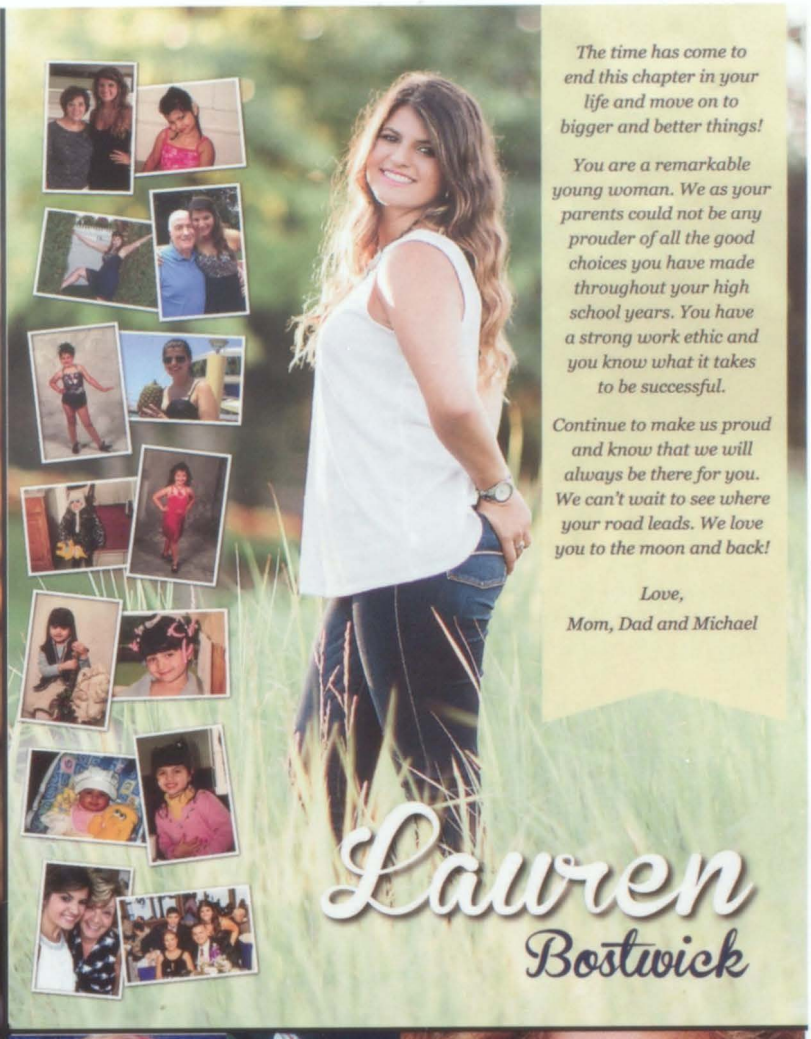
Abby, we are so proud of you and all you have accomplished! As you begin this new part of your life, remember that you are stronger than you think and smarter than you know! Enjoy each moment and remember life is all about the experiences! We love you with all our hearts and can't wait to see where your path leads you. Just always remember where your home is and that you will always have a place to return to! Hopefully, that place will be in Carolina! Love, Mom, Dad, Kelsey, Emily and Kevin



Abby Burch

We do not see the passage of time, we see a little girl still playing dress up, running through the yard, playing on a swing. We are proud of the young woman you have become and we look forward to watch you grow even more.
Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Drake,
Paige, Matty & Colden





The time has come to end this chapter in your life and move on to bigger and better things!

You are a remarkable young woman. We as your parents could not be any prouder of all the good choices you have made throughout your high school years. You have a strong work ethic and you know what it takes to be successful.

Continue to make us proud and know that we will always be there for you. We can't wait to see where your road leads. We love you to the moon and back!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Michael

Lauren Bostwick

Elizabeth,
I remember dropping you off at your first day of pre-school and now you're graduating. The years have gone by so quickly. I am so proud of the young woman you have become and the goals you have achieved. The next chapter of your life is filled with so much excitement and anticipation, I want you to know I will always be there loving you and supporting you.
Love,
Mom

Liz Calicchia

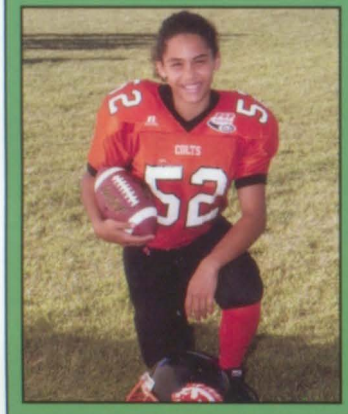
We are so proud of the young women you have become. Your love for life, strong and unwavering sense of self, and courage to always defend what is just, are admirable traits by all who are blessed to know you. These, coupled with your determination and intelligence, will undoubtedly lead you to success. You are beautiful inside and out and we love you so much.
Mom, Dad, Cameron, and Faith

Isabella Carpenter

Selena Ann Campos

Selena, you are a talented and beautiful young lady. I should have known when you wanted to play football and not cheer that you were going to be tough. Continue to be tough and fulfill all your dreams from college and beyond. Your family loves you and as I always say "Reach for the Stars."

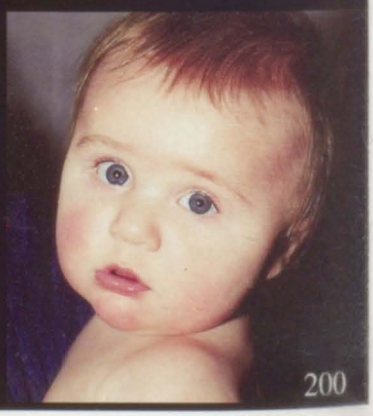
Love,
Mom, Dad, Siblings and Nephews



JOSEPH COLANGELO

Joey...you were such a shy little guy and now look at you. You are adventurous and willing to try anything, so passionate about what you believe in, and committed to the people and things you love! We wish you nothing but the best and are so proud of the outgoing young man you have become!

Love Mom, Dad, Jaqlyn, and Ginger.



Sarah Fazio

Sarah,
How did the time go by so quickly? One day we are taking you to preschool, and the next day you are graduating from high school. You have already given us so much to be proud of, and we know you will continue to make us proud in all of your future accomplishments.
DREAM BIG AND MAKE THOSE DREAMS COME TRUE!!!

All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Alyssa, and Grandma

Olivia Deraway

"There may be people that have more talent than you, but there's no excuse for anyone to work harder than you do."
-Derek Jeter

MYKENZIE DIEHL

You came into this world as a spunky little redhead and we have watched you grow into a smart, beautiful, responsible and precious young woman.

Keep reaching for the stars and know that the sky is the limit to what you can achieve. Don't ever stop making people smile and always be true to yourself.

—Love Mom, Dad and Sissy

Mira and Bella Esposito

Congratulations!

You both continue to amaze us with your accomplishments. We are extremely proud of our girls.

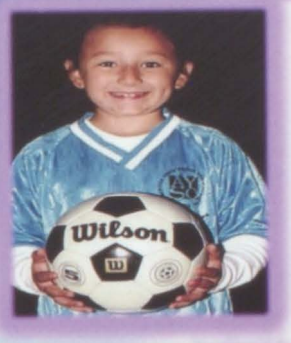
Love you always,

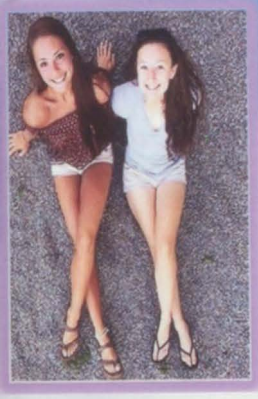
Mom and Dad

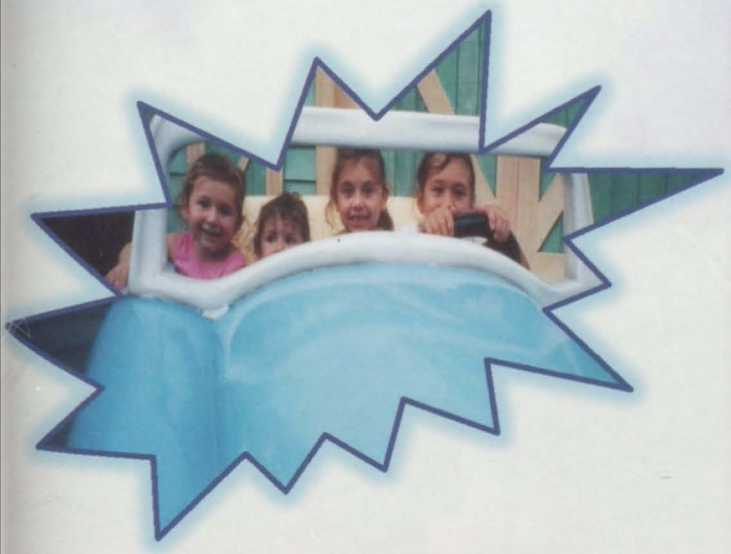
MaryJo Fleck

We are so proud of the young lady you have become. Such a sweet, caring individual! We cannot wait to see what the future brings to you! Love you so much,

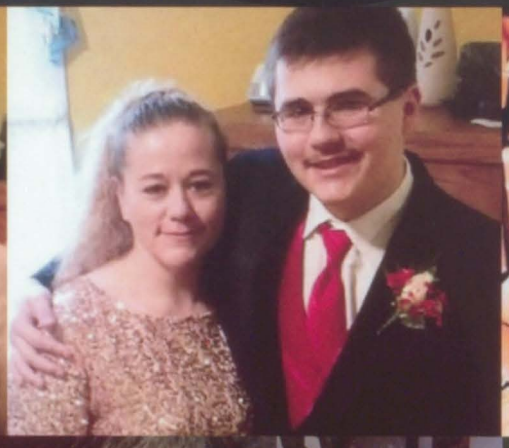
Mom, Dad, Sarah, Amy & Jamie

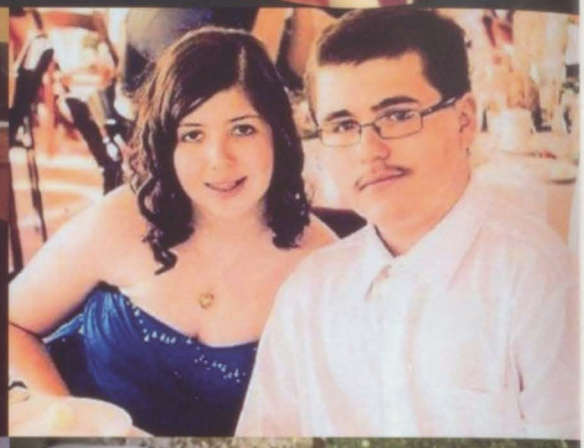






David Francis





David,
We can't believe you graduated! It seems like yesterday, you were starting kindergarten! Where has the time gone? You have grown up to be such a bright, loving, handsome young man, and Dad and I could not be any prouder of you at this moment. You have accomplished so much already in these past 18 years of your life! We can not wait to see what lies ahead as you enter a new chapter in your life. We have no doubt you will find your way.
Believe in yourself and you can do anything! Just hold your head high, put your eyes forward, take that next step, and follow your dreams. You can do it!
Always be kind to others, dream big, and love hard!
We are so proud of you!
Congratulations!
We will always be here for you!
Rock on! We love you!
Love always, Mom and Dad

Nicole Hanrahan

Nicole Rose...
Graduation is here, you've really come far, rejoice and be happy, accept who you are. Address every day with purpose and aim. Decide what you want, make living your game. Understand and discover. Always be true, the world is your canvas, Inviting and new! Opportunity awaits you, just walk through the door, new moments each day are yours to explore. From our adorable baby to our beautiful & smart young lady. Nicole you have made us so very proud & Grandma E wants you to know that she was and always will be proud of you now & forever as she watches over you from heaven!

Your Journey has been unique:
From the swamps of Thailand,
to the success you are today.
Move forward knowing your compassion for others.
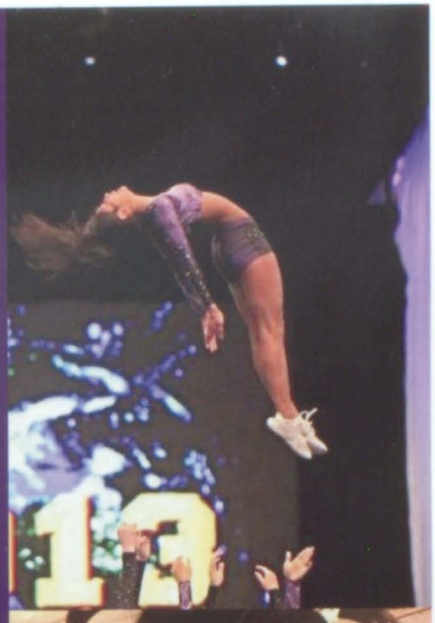
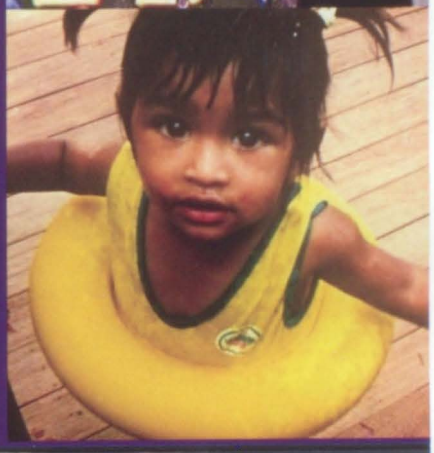
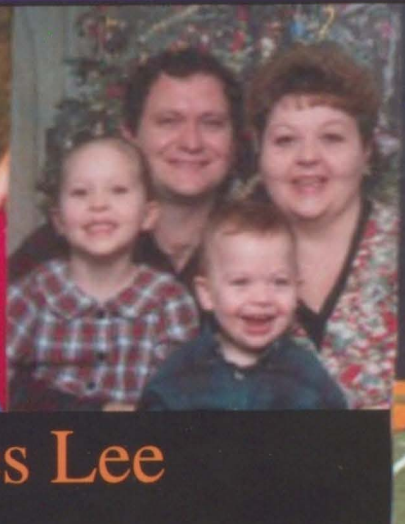
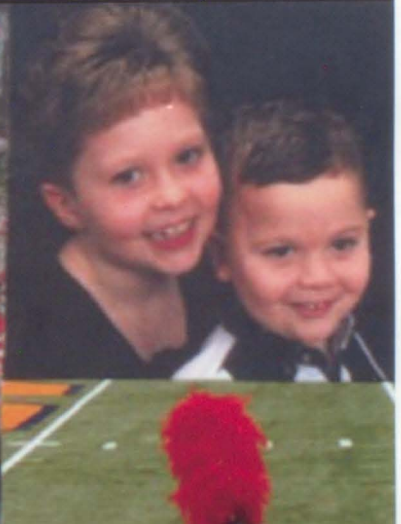
Your desire to make a difference and
The love of your family is with you always!

The World is yours...Fly High!









James Lee

Jimmy,

We closed our eyes for but a moment and suddendly a man stood where a boy used to be. We may not carry you now in our arms but we will always carry you in our hearts. You have given us so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for us is telling others that you are our son.
We love you now and forever.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jenna

Sam Serrano

You were six months old and full of fun..
With a blink of an eye you were suddenly one..
There were so many things that we were going to do..
But when I turned my head and you turned two..
At two you were very dependent on me..
But independence took over when you turned three..
But when I lit the candles,there weren't three there was four..
Four was the year you really strived..
Why look at you now you're already five..
Now you're ready for books and rules..
This is the year that you go to school..
The big day came and you were anxious to go..
We walked to the bus going oh so slow..
As you climbed aboard and waved good-bye..
I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes..
Time goes by so fast, its hard to believe..
And tomorrow when the bus brings you home..
And you jump to the ground..
You'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown..
So I'm holding onto these moments for as long as I can..
Because the next time I look... I will be seeing a man!

Congratulations Sammy!!
You're off to Great Places!!
I am so very proud of you!
We Love You!
Mom and Karle

Jacob Swancott

Jacob Thomas,

The time has come, your leaving to go out into this great big world on your own. From the time you came into this world and put into my arms, you have been the light of my life (my sunshine)! We have had some struggles along the way as parents do with their children, but not one day goes by that I am not proud of you! Your choice to join the Army and serve your country has shown me how grown up you have become and of course how proud I am to call you my son! Jacob, no matter where you are or where you go in this world know that I am always with you and am just a phone call away. This house will be so empty, lonely and don't forget boring without you, but I don't want you to ever forget where home is! One more thing, stay strong and always stay true to yourself.

I Love you always,

Mom

CONGRATULATIONS PAXTON!

You are such a talented, thoughtful, kind and generous young man. Thank you for always bringing a smile to our faces. Remember when you put your heart into it, you can accomplish anything! We are so proud of who you have become and we all are excited to see what amazing things you accomplish after high school.

You will do GREAT things!

We love and believe in you!

Mom, Paul, Preston, Ryan, Sarah and Corey

Maria Vacca

Maria,
When you were a very little girl you would crawl on my lap and ask me to read you your favorite story, Mama, Do You Love Me?, by Barbara M. Josse. I would always oblige and read it to you. Little did I know how much that book would teach me about being a parent. In the story the little girl tests the limits of her independence, while her mother reassuringly proves that a parent's love is unconditional and everlasting. Daddy and I love you beyond measure. We have watched you grow and test your own limits of independence. We are so incredibly proud of the young woman you have become. While you close one chapter of your life and a new chapter begins, know that Daddy, Ellie and I will always love you! Never, ever stop testing your limits, believe in yourself and the world is yours for taking!

-Mom, Dad and Ellie

Julia Rose,
If I could give you 3 things,
It would be the confidence to
Always know your self worth,
The strength to chase your dreams,
and the ability to know how truly, deeply you are loved.
I love you with all my heart
Baby girl and I'm so proud to be your mom.

XO Love Mom

Julia,
As you continue on your journey through life, I know you will be a blessing to all the people you meet. Just as you are to me.
Wishing you love, happiness and succes

Seth Jackson Washburn,

As you move forward with your life, I have the joy of knowing all the plights you have been through and all the joy you have brought not just to me but many around you, family & friends.

Watching you grow into a responsible young man makes me soar with pride. I did the best I could for you and I hope I have given you the tools to move forward and become the man you want to be.

As you move forward know your Mom loves you to the moon and back. Be the best at all you do and don't look back, concentrate on the future.

We love you, Mom and Jana

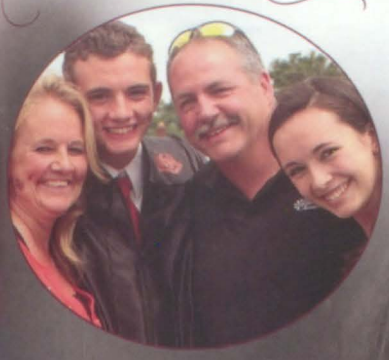
You have brains in your head, you have feet in your shoes, you can steer yourself any direction you choose, you're on your own and you know what you know and you are the one who'll decide where to go... -Dr. Seuss

Emily,

It has truly been an honor to watch our shy, quiet, little girl evolve into the outgoing, respectful confident young woman you are now. There is nothing that you cannot achieve. Never settle for second best, you deserve nothing but the best. Always know that your family will be there to pick you up when you are down and to celebrate with you during your triumphs.

We love you with all our hearts,
Dad, Mom, Gabrielle and Zack

Hannah Casadei



Congratulations to our beautiful Little Lady! We are so proud of the intelligent, kind, brave, strong young woman that you have become. In so many ways you are just like your namesake. We are proud of the way you stand up for the things that you believe in. At the age of two, you made it well known that you wouldn't back down on an argument regarding something you truly believed in."Well nuffin!" Our hopes and prayers are that we have instilled in you the ability to make good choices. We know good choices are not always the easiest to make, and mistakes will be made, but your family will always be there for you. Now go out there and show this world all that you have to offer.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Christopher,
Frank, and Miley

In Memory of Daniel Fronczek

Beloved Teacher

Scientist

Geologist

Mr.Fronczek will always be in my heart and my mind. He made A HUGE difference in my life. I care about Mr. Fronczek more than just a teacher. He was a more of a friend-mentor to me. He ALWAYS showed me kindness and compassion even on my worst days. My high school days and years are much more memorable and exciting because of all the fun I had in Mr. Fronczek's class. Mr. Fronczek encouraged me to do bigger and better things than I thought I was capable of doing. He never put a limit on me. He put into my head that I can do anything I put my mind and heart into. I appreciate the time I spent in Mr. Fronczek's class now more than ever. I love Mr. Fronczek and he will always be with me.
